Aloha,

2015 has been an extremely busy year for myself and my family and I'm sure it was for you as well. As the City Councilmember representing District 9, I have had the opportunity to address critical issues that affect Oahu residents. I have also remained actively involved in the community and have worked hard to ensure that the City provides the needed services and improvements that my district requires. One of the aspects of my position that I've found most rewarding is recognizing the many outstanding individuals in my district.

My wife Pat has also stayed very busy as a first grade teacher at Helemano Elementary School in Whitmore Village. As a long-time public school educator, Pat feels tremendous satisfaction in knowing that she makes a difference in the lives of her young students.

Pat and I consider ourselves so blessed to have three special sons and, as parents, we are grateful for their achievements. Our oldest son, Benjamin, will be graduating from the University of Hawaii at Manoa this spring. Anthony is finishing up his first quarter at UCLA while his twin brother, Andrew, is a freshman at UH Manoa.

As 2015 draws to a close, my family wishes you the very best for a blessed and prosperous new year. Thank you, as always, for the opportunity to serve you.

Mahalo,

Ron Menor
